Lowe's rewards Gateway students

BY HOWARD MCEWEN | ENQUIRER CONTRIBUTOR

HIGHLAND HEIGHTS - Ten Gateway Community and Technical College students have been awarded the Lowe's Educational Scholarship. The home improvement store gave $2,000 to full-time students or $800 to part-time students.

"I had good grades, perfect attendance, and try really hard," said April Hamons, 40, of Covington. Hamons will graduate this fall with her associate degree in accounting. "I'm planning to continue with my bachelor's at Morehead.

"It was a really cool thing they (Lowe's) do for students," she said.

ADVERTISEMENT Hamons submitted her scholarship application online at the same time she applied for a job at Lowe's.

"The application requirements are a minimum GPA, completion of at least one semester toward field of study, and willingness to explore employment opportunities at Lowe's," said Lowe's Area Human Resource Manager Cindi Clark.

Gateway's tuition for the upcoming academic year is $109 per credit hour. Students must be enrolled in at least six credit hours to receive the scholarships. An estimated 60 percent of Gateway's students receive some form of financial aid.

Lowe's offers scholarships across the country.
